Workshops at Disability Rights California

DRC offers weekly housing-specific workshops and hosts weekly bilingual webinars (English and Spanish) on topics including Regional Center services, alternatives to conservatorship, IHSS, Social Security, special education, assistance animals, and reasonable accommodations in employment and higher education. Some important webinars include:

SSI Eligibility/Appeals

Learn about SSI eligibility and appeals, we will go over the SSI eligibility requirements, appeals, reporting requirements and other topics.

SSDI Eligibility/Appeals

Learn how Social Security pays benefits to people who can't work because they have a medical condition that's expected to last at least one year or result in death. Certain members of your family may be eligible for benefits based on your work history.

Cash Assistance Program for Immigrants (CAPI)

Learn about California's state-funded program that provides monthly cash benefits to aged, blind, disabled non-citizen who don't qualify for SSI/SSP including eligibility, related programs like Medi-Cal and CalFresh, and the appeal process.

CaIABLE

Learn about CaIABLE, a saving and investment program that allows people with disabilities to save money without losing public benefits such as SSI, SSDI, or Medi-Cal, including eligibility, how to open an account, and more.
